

TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP AND NON-AGGRESSION

BETWEEN THE DESTENIAN REPUBLIC AND THE AGARITIAN REPUBLIC

The Destenian Republic and the Agaritian Republic, guided by the principles of sovereign equality, peaceful coexistence, and mutual respect, reaffirming their commitment to independence, territorial integrity, political autonomy, and non-interference, recognizing the necessity of stable, predictable, and constructive bilateral relations, determined to prevent conflict and to resolve any difference exclusively through diplomatic and peaceful means, and seeking to strengthen cooperation while preserving full national sovereignty, have agreed as follows:

Article 1

The High Contracting Parties mutually recognize and respect the internationally recognized borders of their respective States. The land boundary between the Destenian Republic and the Agaritian Republic is established along the Casari Canal and is hereby declared permanent, inviolable, and final. No territorial claims, present or future, shall be asserted by either Party, and this boundary shall apply to all land, waters, and related installations.

Article 2

The Parties irrevocably renounce the use or threat of force against one another, including direct, indirect, hybrid, or proxy actions, regardless of the nature or seriousness of any dispute. They commit to preventing escalation and to resolving all disagreements solely through dialogue, consultation, and peaceful diplomatic means.

Article 3

Neither Party shall host, support, finance, train, tolerate, or permit within its territory any foreign power, organization, intelligence service, armed group, terrorist entity, or non-state actor that threatens the sovereignty, security, or territorial integrity of the other Party. Each Party shall actively prevent such activities and cooperate to neutralize them.

Article 4

Joint bilateral commissions shall be established to address matters of common concern, including border coordination, security confidence-building, and sectoral cooperation. Such commissions shall operate on a consultative basis, meet regularly as agreed, and submit recommendations subject to approval by the respective governments.

Article 5

The Parties shall cooperate in safeguarding their independence and strategic interests abroad where their positions converge. Such cooperation shall respect the principles of non-alignment and shall not constitute obligations toward third parties or military alliances.

Article 6

The Parties shall strictly refrain from any form of interference in the internal affairs of the other. Neither Party shall seek to influence the political system, form of government, legal order, culture, or societal organization of the other State.

Article 7

The Parties shall ensure visa-free border transit for their respective citizens across their common boundary, in accordance with domestic law and public order requirements, and shall facilitate lawful movement in a spirit of mutual trust.

Article 8

Economic, scientific, and military cooperation in areas of key resources, infrastructure, technology, and essential services shall be pursued on the basis of equality and mutual benefit. Military cooperation shall be strictly non-allied in nature and implemented exclusively through separate agreements approved by both governments.

Article 9

Any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of this Treaty shall be resolved through direct consultations. If unresolved, the Parties may jointly seek mediation or other peaceful mechanisms agreed upon by both Parties.

Article 10

This Treaty shall be interpreted in good faith in accordance with its object and purpose. No unilateral interpretation or suspension shall be permitted.

Article 11

Amendments to this Treaty may be adopted only by mutual written consent of the Parties and shall enter into force following ratification in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures.

Article 12

In the event of a material breach, either Party may suspend or terminate this Treaty upon written notice. Termination shall take effect twelve months after notification and shall not affect rights or obligations already accrued.

Article 13

This Treaty is concluded for a period of ten years from its entry into force. It shall be automatically extended for successive periods of five years if at least one Party expresses its intention to renew it prior to expiration.

Article 14

This Treaty shall enter into force upon ratification by both Parties.

Signed in Zurdo, Agaritian Republic, on 6 November 2021.
